It is hard to believe that another reenacting season has come and gone. We thank all of you who participated in the events this past year at the Old Fort and for assisting us in having another wonderful year.

We hope that as you prepare your schedules for 2012, you will plan to join us at the Old Fort in Fort Wayne, Indiana. You will find a registration packet enclosed with this letter. Please review all of the forms that we have included for your convenience.

The School Day is again on the schedule, on May 18th. We already have had teachers complete the registration form, so we are expecting another large, inquisitive group of students.

You may arrive on site to set up for events after 12:00 noon on the Friday of each event weekend. Participants can set up their camps no earlier than that time. Upon arrival each individual is required to stop at the registration booth for sign in and site location assignment.

The only exception to this is for the School Day in May and for that event only you may arrive after noon on Thursday, May 17.

Please be aware that all events are juried. If you have not attended an event at the Old Fort previously, please enclose a picture with your application for participation.

Historic Fort Wayne will be enforcing all deadlines for events. These dates are listed on each of the event applications. Please do not expect to be admitted if you do not register.

Please complete the enclosed application(s) for the event(s) you wish to attend. Mail them to:
